Business Confidence Survey - June 2026

(This survey was conducted during June 01-11 , 2026, with a total of 512 respondents. The number presented are diffusion Indices (DI*) except for Figures 1, & 8)

Businesses’ inflation expectations eased in June 2026

Fig 1: Inflation Expectations
(percent , 5% trimmed mean)

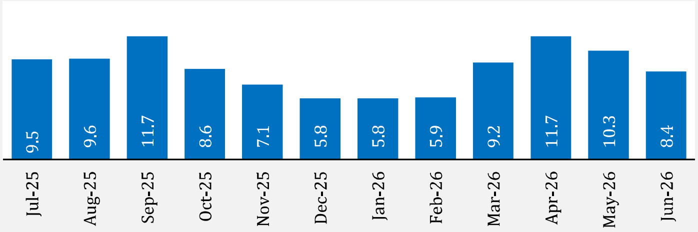

Fig 2: Proportion of Businesses Expecting Higher Prices
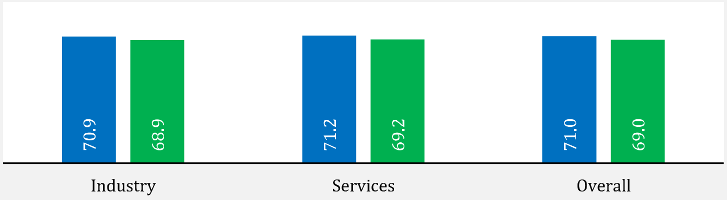
May-26 Jun-26



Business confidence is hovering around March 2026

Fig 3: Business Confidence Index (BCI)

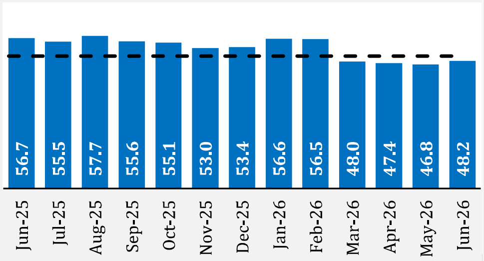


Fig 4: Current and Expected BCI
May-26 Jun-26

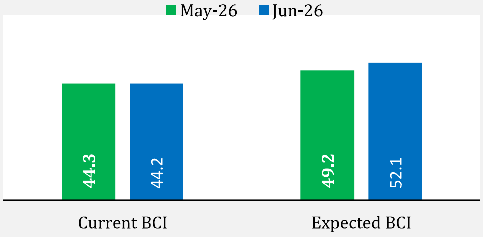

Fig 5: Sector-wise BCI
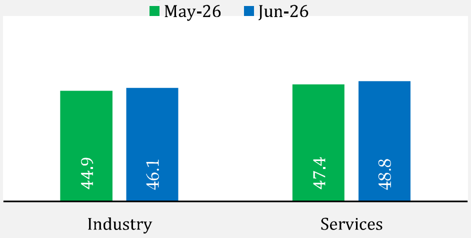
May-26 Jun-26



Purchasing Managers’ Index improved in June

Fig 6: Purchasing Managers Index (PMI)

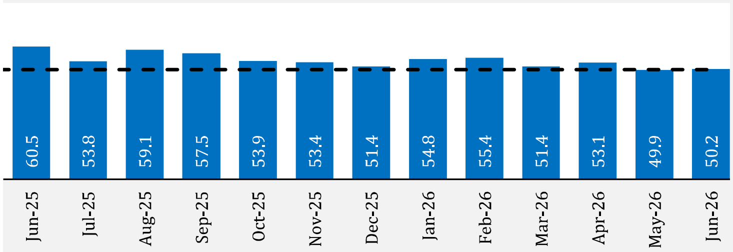


Fig 7: Components of PMI
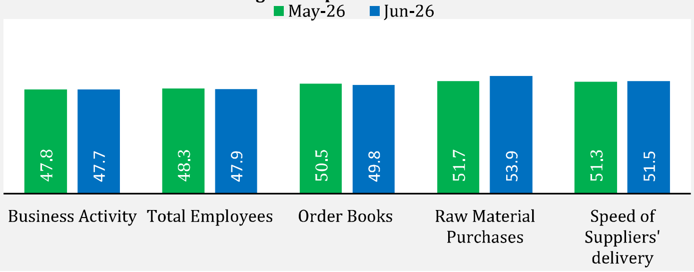
May-26 Jun-26



Average capacity utilization and perceptions about employment growth have improved

Fig 8: Capacity Utilization
(Manufacturing , %)

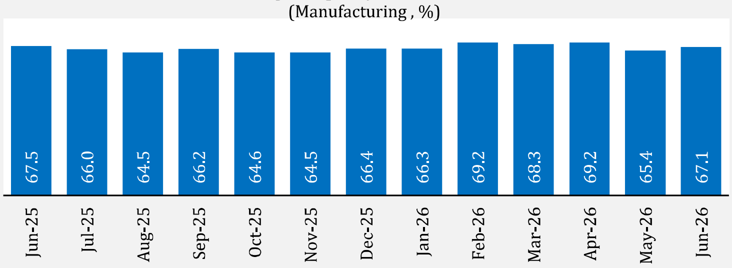


Fig 9: Employment Sentiments
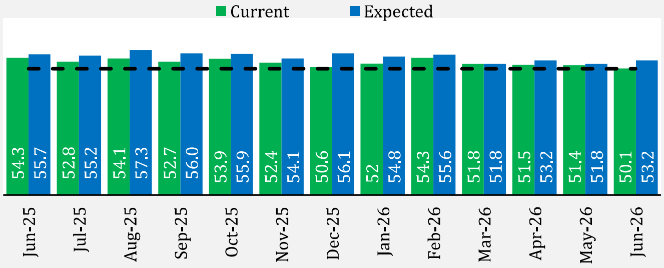
Current Expected



"*DI>50 indicates that positive/ increasing views are more than negative/ declining views. DI = 50 indicates that positive/ increasing views and negative/declining views are equal(shown by dash line). DI<50 indicates that positive/ increasing views are less than negative/ declining views. Both current and expected variables are assessed over the past or next six months except Figures 1, 2 which are based on 12- month period.

Note: For more details of the survey, visit SBP website